

Chorus ad Diem will be the “choir for the day” next Sunday at the 9:45 service and will meet at 9:05 in the Church to learn a new piece to sing. All are welcome!

Eastertide Worship: During Eastertide we will move back to Holy Eucharist, Rite II in the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). We will be using Eucharistic Prayer D for the season which proclaims the magnificence of Christ’s resurrection most explicitly. Also, the Service music Gloria, Alleluia Verse, Sanctus, Agnus Dei, is composed by Philp Stopford, an English sacred music Choral Composer and Choir Director now serving at Christ Church Bronxville. We will learn this musical setting this season, then be able to enjoy it as we celebrate Easter again next year. The Service Music Mass Setting can be found in the pamphlet in your pew.

Feedback Opportunity: Lent, Palm Sunday, Tenebrae, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter Sunday. Please access the online feedback form at <https://goo.gl/forms/wA1wLNdIP3khhEKx1> to share with the Worship Committee your thoughts about worship this past season.

THE MINISTRY OF THE WORD

The First Lesson sitting Acts 3:12-19

Peter addressed the people, “You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you. “And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out.”

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
 People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 4 BCP 587

Sequence Anthem (9:45) “I know that my Redeemer lives!” S. Drummond Wolff
I know that my Redeemer lives! What comfort this sweet sentence gives! He lives, he lives Who once was dead; He lives, my ever living head! He lives triumphant from the grave; He lives eternally to save; He lives exalted, throned above; He lives to rule his Church in love. He lives and grants me daily breath; He lives, and I shall conquer death; He lives my mansion to prepare; He lives to bring me safely there. He lives, all glory to his name! He lives, my Savior, still the same; What joy this blest assurance gives: I know that my Redeemer lives! –Samuel Medley

Alleluia Verse Philip Stopford Pew Leaflet, p. 7
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

The Gospel standing Luke 24:36b-48
 Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Luke People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus himself stood among the disciples and said to them, “Peace be with you.” They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, “Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.” And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, “Have you anything here to eat?” They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence. Then he said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.” Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.

The Communion of the People
If you accept Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, you are welcome to share in the Bread and Wine of Communion, regardless of your denominational background. Come to the rail at the direction of the ushers. Stand or kneel at the rail and receive the bread (a wafer) in the palm of your hand. Receive the wine either by drinking from the cup (guiding it to your lips) or by touching the wafer, which you have retained, lightly to the wine, being careful not to touch your fingers to the wine. If you decide not to receive the Bread and/or the Wine and would prefer to receive a blessing, simply cross your arms over your chest. If you are in need of a Gluten-free wafer instead of the regular bread wafer, please indicate this to the clergy at the time you are receiving communion.

Communion Motet (9:45) “Low in the grave he lay” Robert Lowry
Low in the grave He lay, Jesus my Savior! Waiting the coming, Jesus my Lord! Up from the grave He arose, With a mighty triumph over His foes; He arose a victor from the dark domain, And He lives forever with His saints to reign. He arose! Hallelujah! Christ arose! Vainly they watch His bead, Jesus my Savior! Vainly they seal the dead, Jesus my Lord! Death cannot keep his prey, Jesus my Savior! He tore the bars away, Jesus my Lord! –Robert Lowry
