

To Come to Church of the Good Shepherd to receive communion:

1. Please reserve a spot beforehand online. There is a Signup Genius that will help us to properly prepare for your arrival. If you cannot make reservations online, please contact the office to let us know you expect to come. <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/30e0e4caf29aafb6-sunday603/882-5352>
2. You can approach the church one of a few ways: First, you can park in front of the church on Main Street. There are a couple of barricades and a temporary traffic sign here, but there are two free spots just before the road narrows to accommodate the restaurants. Second, you can enter the parking lot from Spring Street, located in between St. Patrick's church and the old Trinity school, you can park in one of the four spots labeled 'CGS Parking Only'; third you can park anywhere else nearby and walk to the front steps of the church; the public garage, Santander, and Citizens all have ample parking on Sundays
3. The clergy will come to your car to administer the sacrament whenever possible. There will be a short prayer and a blessing.
4. Communion will be administered to you in a sealed envelope. Please treat the sacrament reverently, and consume it as soon as may be convenient. please dispose of the envelope by burning it, composting it, or recycling it.

You can also make an appointment to receive communion at Church or at home throughout the week. Please contact Pastor Mike or Pastor Greg to schedule this.
